If no new words are introduced in a book, the new words from the previous book are listed as review words. Throughout the program, review words are repeated at least four times each in the book in which they are listed.

Plot Summary

Mat the Rat gives Sam the Lion a cape and a crown. When Sam wears them he thinks he can do anything he wants. He sees a calf and decides to play "bullfighter." It is Sam, however, not the calf, who gets caught in the cape. Mat helps untangle Sam and Sam is once more the smiling king of the jungle.
